Cannot come any
to sprained foot -

RECEIVED
AUG 15 1892
U. S. MINT, PHILA.

Dear Sir Cobb.

Altho' I am due at the mint to day from my "Vacation" (?) my injured foot warns me to be careful. I do not want to re-sprain it, and thus hinder its cure, yet if Lewis has to pay off to day, I feel as if I ought to be on hand to do what I can to help him. If the draft comes from Washington this a.m. please "Phone" me at once on opening the mail and I will come in on the 9 o'ck train; otherwise I will rest of until I hear from Her in by "Phone". Enjoy Call up Hadnfield, and I will get it sooner than by telegraphing.

I would not Phone if the draft is not on hand.

Very truly

[Abstract:] Cannot come owing to sprained foot.

Dear Fid. Cobb,

Altho' I am due at the Mint today from my "Vacation" (?) my injured food warns me to be careful. I do not want to resprain it, and thus hinder its cure, yet if Lewis has to pay off to today, I feel as if I ought to be on hand to do what I can to help him. If the draft comes from Washington this AM, please "Phone" me at once on opening the mail and I will come in on the 9 ock. train; otherwise I will rest it until I hear from thee in by "Phone". Simply call up Haddonfield, and I will get it sooner than by telegraphing.

I would not Phone if the draft is not on hand.

Very truly,
L.R. Cowperthwaite
